

Podcast Biographies: Pilot Testing the Gender-Aware Supervision Toolkit in Kenya

All biographies have been provided by the speakers.

Speakers:

Grace Ogawo
Technology Policy Analyst, Central Bank of Kenya

Ms. Grace Ogawo has served at the Central Bank of Kenya (CBK) for over 3 years as part of the Technology Team in the Bank Supervision Department. She is also part of CBK’s planning team for the Afro-Asia FinTech Festival, which is held annually in collaboration with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. She serves as one of CBK’s representatives in the National KE-CIRT/CC Cybersecurity Committee (NKCC). She was CBK’s project lead for the Project with Toronto Centre on Gender, Technology and Financial Inclusion Supervision.

Ms. Ogawo is an alumna of Cambridge University, having undertaken the Cambridge Fintech and Regulatory Innovation (CFTRI) programme. She has a Bachelor of Commerce (Finance) degree from the University of Nairobi. Additionally, she graduated with a Diploma in Information Security from the Institute of Software Technologies. Ms. Ogawo is a Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) and Certified Information Security Manager (CISM). Ms. Ogawo continues to contribute to the financial sector by advancing fintech through policy and regulation, for sustainability and financial inclusion.

Petronella Chigara-Dhitima
Program Leader, Toronto Centre

Petronella Chigara-Dhitima is Toronto Centre’s Program Leader for this research report. She is also the Managing Director of Mustard Seed Advisory. She brings more than 29 years of experience in microfinance/financial inclusion in Southern, East and West Africa. She has worked in more than 30 countries most of which are from Sub-Saharan Africa. She is former Accion Africa

Hub and Project Manager (based in Ghana); and has recently worked with international agencies such as ILO, FAO, DAI managed EU programs in Gambia and Zimbabwe. Petronella is a Master Trainer for ILO, ITCILO, and has taught at Boulder MFT for the past 20 years. She is a certified SMART assessor for the Smart Campaign, certified RIM assessor and sits on Vision Fund International board.