

TC Note Podcast Biographies: Adapting Macroprudential Frameworks to Climate Change Risks

All biographies have been provided by the speakers.

R. Barry Johnston Program Leader

R. Barry Johnston is a former Assistant Director of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), with more than thirty years' experience in assisting countries with financial policy and analysis. Since retiring from the IMF, Mr. Johnston has consulted for the Toronto Centre, the IMF, the World Bank and national authorities on topics including, macroprudential policy, financial sector surveillance and assessments, financial crisis preparedness and resolution, financial crisis simulations, international regulatory codes and standards, and identification of systemically important financial institutions.

Demet Çanakçı Program Director

Demet Çanakçı is a Program Director at the Toronto Centre. She has a solid professional experience in both supervision and central banking for a total of 28 years. Before joining Toronto Centre, she served as deputy head in the Financial Sector Assessment Division of the Central Bank of Turkey. She was responsible for both financial stability and international regulations, and Financial Stability Board (FSB).

Demet has also been a team member of FSB's Indonesia Country Peer Review and an economist at the International Monetary Fund (IMF). During 2000-2007 she served as a deputy head in the Banking Regulation and Supervision Agency of Turkey. Demet has received a Master of Economics degree from North Carolina State University and was a research scholar at Kiel Institute for World Economics and a visiting scholar at George Washington University.