

Dr. Naresh Singh is the Special Adviser on Sustainability at Toronto Centre. In this role, Dr. Singh provides advice on climate and other environmental issues as they relate to financial regulatory and supervisory risk management and supports capacity development to manage such risks. Concurrently, he serves as senior Vice President for Global Partnerships at the Global Development Solutions Canada, a strategic advisory services firm.

Naresh has had more than 30 years' experience in international development and has held several senior positions including as Senior Scientist and then Executive Director of the Caribbean Environmental Health Institute; Program Director at IISD ( International Institute for Sustainable Development), Principal Adviser on Poverty and Sustainable Livelihoods at UNDP, New York and Director-General/ acting VP at the CIDA, Federal Government of Canada. He participated in the Second World Climate Conference (1990) and was active in the negotiations leading to UN Framework on Climate Change (1992) and the UN Conference on Environment and Development. He has since then been actively engaged internationally on issues of sustainability.

Dr. Singh has been recognized globally for his work on sustainable livelihoods which offers win-win options for poverty reduction and environmental conservation. Naresh has a Ph.D. in Environmental Sciences, has been a visiting professor at several Universities in Canada, USA, the Caribbean and India and is widely published.

Anatol Monid is a Toronto Centre (TC) Program Director, having worked as a TC Program Leader for many years. He was previously Executive Director of the Licensing and Market Conduct Division (LMCD) of the Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) which conducted supervision and regulation across many regulated sectors, including: insurance, deposit-taking, mortgage brokering, pensions and co-operatives. His responsibilities included oversight of the following core regulatory activities: licensing and registration; applications and filings; monitoring and compliance; enforcement and intervention; and contributed to regulatory policy for its regulated financial sectors. LMCD also supported regulatory efforts at a national level for insurance and mortgage broking. Anatol was with FSCO for almost fifteen years, originally joining FSCO as Director of Market Regulation. At that time, he was also appointed the Insurance Ombudsman.